1. Soviet authorities have relaxed the Rumanian Government because outdoor construction work has been closed down on account of cold weather. They informed the Rumanians that in the USSR such work was performed at temperatures of minus 40 degrees Fahrenheit.
2. The Rumanian authorities excused their action on the ground that Rumanian workers were not equipped for cold weather and therefore refused to work.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
